Acknowledgement

We pay our respects to all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and communities across Australia, and their Elders past and present.

We are committed to walking together to develop culturally safe information and initiatives that enable people to make informed choices and connections, and support strong, self-determining communities.

iLA is committed to working with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations and their communities to ensure that everyone living in Australia has the information and support they need to make informed choices and live well.

We're thankful for the opportunity to build these tailored resources in partnership with Little Rocket, VACCHO, VAHS, and the Elder Working Group. The knowledge and insights they shared during this process has been invaluable. We hope the resources will benefit First Nations people, and further support their self-determination.

Andrea Morris
General Manager at iLA

We hope the Everyday Tools to Help Mob Guide and resources will be used by community-controlled organisations, Elders and their families to promote easy, healthy ageing journeys for all.

About the artwork

“Walking Hand in Hand”

Matty Atkinson-Bangerang and Wiradjuri

In the bottom left corner, you can see Elders shrouded in blue, walking together towards a gathering place representing the heart of the community.

We see two guiding hands on either side of this journey – one hand represents the Elders, and the other embodies the helping hand of assistive products that can support the health and independence of Elders as they walk on their journey.

Country and traditional ways surround this journey. Along the bottom we see Country depicted in red, symbolising the land and its deep, enduring connection to its people. At the top we see traditional ways and knowledge, passed down through generations, guiding the Elders as they navigate their journey.
